We hope you have enjoyed the Christmas Period and wish you all a wonderful new year moving forward.

On Saturday 31st March, we will have lots of Easter eggs waiting for you and your children to paint.

Limited availability, book now to hold your space.

At Voice of the Child, we endeavor to make our contact centre a welcoming and pleasant experience for your child/ren and you. If there is anything we can do to help with your experience please do not hesitate to contact a member of staff/ telephone or email us or use our suggestion box on the front desk. Please make sure you take a look

We shall continue to facilitate our support groups. Thank you to those parents who attended and apologies for the cancellation of the resident parent January support group.

We hope you can attend, please feel free to email us in advance should you wish us to focus on any specific topic – bear in mind it is an open platform however, each month we will have a different agenda.

Future sessions:

Resident Parents

Friday 23rd March 15.45-17.45

Non-Resident Parents

Friday 30th March 15.45-17.45

Invitation emails will be sent out for both groups so please confirm whether you are able to attend at our notice board in the main play area as important notices and information will be posted there.

- Please note that availability is very limited and we recommend that you book early to avoid disappointment. Provisional bookings will only be held for 3 working days from the date the booking is made

This year we celebrate our 10th Anniversary, since the organization began.

We would love your support with helping our online presence. We have recently put together an Instagram page and created a new Facebook page. We would appreciate you taking the time to follow and share your support so we can reach out to others like yourselves who may require assistance.

providing there is a week clear prior to contact - full payment is required by this deadline unless extended by prior arrangement.

- It is the non-resident parent's responsibility to ensure that you are being proactive in making bookings, do not assume the responsibility is that of the staff or the resident parent.

We hope you find our newsletter both informative and enjoyable, and look forward to the next one in April 2018 – should you wish to advertise on our newsletter please contact us for more information.

Thank you once again for using our services. If you require any assistance please do not hesitate to contact us.
